GUIDELINES FOR MANUSCRIPT SUBMISSION

LAND ECONOMICS has a Web-based manuscript submission system. Our system will ask you to register, and then you may submit your manuscript electronically. Once you are registered, future submissions will be simple and routine.

The link to our Web site is: <http://le.msubmit.net/cgi-bin/main.plex>.

Thank you for your interest in LAND ECONOMICS.

The manuscript should be a maximum of 30–35 pages of text (10,000 words, more or less), excluding references, tables, figures, and notes. The manuscript file should be organized as follows: title page, abstract of 100 words or less, text, appendix, references, tables, figure titles, and grouped footnotes, and preferably be in MS Word. Any figures should be in separate files and should be black-and-white and of high resolution with a minimum dpi of 300, however, 600 dpi is preferable.

It is the policy of LAND ECONOMICS to publish papers only on the condition that the data used in the analysis are: (1) clearly and precisely documented; (2) readily available to any researcher for purposes of replication; and (3) sufficiently detailed in the specifics of computations to permit replication. Appearance of an article in LAND ECONOMICS constitutes evidence that authors understand these conditions and will abide by the stated requirements.
