LAND ECONOMICS is devoted to the study of economic aspects of the entire spectrum of natural and environmental resources, emphasizing conceptual and/or empirical work with direct relevance for public policy. Founded in 1925 as the Journal of Land and Public Utility Economics, the emphasis remains with articles that address the determinants and consequences of economic activity on the value and use of land, or the contribution of natural and environmental resources to economic activity.

Land Economics is published quarterly (February, May, August, November) by the University of Wisconsin Press. Land Economics is available online with value-added research tools, at no additional cost, to subscribers of the print version. Correspondence regarding subscriptions, changes of address, requests for advertising rate cards, ordering back issues, and other business should be sent to: Journal Division, The University of Wisconsin Press, 1930 Monroe Street, 3rd floor, Madison WI 53711-2059, U.S.A., uwiscpress@mac.wisc.edu, www.wisc.edu/wiscinspress. Annual subscription rates are: $158.00 institutional; $56.00 individual (add $8.00 for foreign subscriptions; airmail is $25.00 a year additional; Canadian subscribers add 7% goods and services tax).
